

Celebrating innovation and enterprise in public safety communications

CATEGORY CRITERIA

Contribution to BAPCO (Individual)

As a member-focused, not-for-profit association, BAPCO could not exist without those people and organisations who support us in improving public safety communications and technology. This support is sometimes unnoticed or not acknowledged as well as it could be. This Award recognises the individual who has demonstrated an exceptional positive impact on the Association as an advocate for BAPCO or through a direct contribution to the Association's activities or development.

ELGIBILITY

- The nominator does not need to be a current BAPCO member.
- The nominee must be a current BAPCO member.
- Members of the BAPCO Board of Directors and BAPCO employees are not eligible for nomination
- Previous members of the BAPCO Board of Directors and former employees are excluded from nomination for the three years following the end of their tenure as a Director or employee.
- There does not need to be a formal relationship between nominator and nominee.

CRITERIA

In general, nominees will have consistently contributed to enhancing the profession through active participation in BAPCO or on behalf of BAPCO. Specifically, the nominees will have demonstrated one or more of the following attributes:

- Enhanced the reputation of BAPCO.
- Enhanced the reputation of the profession through BAPCO activity.
- Enhanced the quality, standards and professionalism of BAPCO's activities.
- Committed to continuous improvement as shown by engagement in the ongoing development of public safety communications best practices, as demonstrated through BAPCO activities.
- Devised, developed and/or implemented innovative approaches to collaboration with BAPCO partner organisations.
- Achieved excellence in the profession beyond the scope of his/her primary professional role.
- Influenced the practice of public safety communications directly or indirectly at the national or international level.
- Improved the quality, standards and professionalism of BAPCO and its activities as a result of their assiduousness.
